Nia

BIO

Infectious melodies and vocals smoother than cocoa butter, Nia's effortless blend of R&B and pop touches on everything from relationships to finding your true self. The 22 year old Singer songwriter draws on her Dominican background and influences that include Gwen Stefani, Aaliyah, and Lauryn Hill to create a contemporary take on the late 90's R&B vibe that she was raised on.

Born in Queens, New York and currently residing in Brooklyn, Nia released her debut EP Only One in October of 2019 while taking classes at The New School.

After graduating in 2020 she is focusing on music and continuing to perfect her already impressive songwriting skills.
